Ashleworth Hub and Kozicot holiday cottage, Gloucestershire

Altro products create homely hub for village community

Issue

Ashleworth Hub is the heart of the local community and houses a post office, café, and deli, and has an attached holiday cottage, Kozicot. Being the focal point for the village and with a high customer footfall, Ashleworth Hubs old living areas were being converted into extended commercial spaces for the café and deli, and the public areas upgraded after a complete refurbishment. Kozicot was also re-designed to provide a comfortable, homely, and dog-friendly place to stay for guests.

Approach

Local business and installers of hygienic floors and walls, Hycom, were regular visitors to Ashleworth Hub, often popping in for breakfast or lunch. Upon hearing of the refurbishment, Gavin Flynn, Hycom's Managing Director, recommended Altro products for the different areas, "I can visit a project and be able to offer all the right products, for the right areas, within the Altro range of floors and walls."

Solution

Altro Tegulis tile-effect wall panels were specified for Kozicots kitchen, bathroom, and shower room, providing easy to clean, stylish interiors. Altro Pisces, specified for Kozicots bathroom and shower room, provides lifetime sustained slip resistance with a consistent, soft appearance. Altro Wood brings a homely feel to Kozicots lounge and kitchen. Altro Wood was specified for The Hub café, deli, dining area and entrance in a rustic design, bringing safety and keeping the character of the historic building intact.

"With so many people visiting, we needed robust, easy to clean and aesthetically durable products. The end result is brilliant and everything we hoped for."

Amy Williamson,
Owner, Ashleworth Hub
