Contemporary and stylish floor solution for busy showroom

Issue

Saxen's 7,000 sq ft showroom, based in a renovated lace mill, displays a selection of some of the most innovative, contemporary, and stylish commercial furniture and accessories from across Europe. The showroom, boardroom, corridor, and breakout area needed a new floor which would create a perfect blend of design and style, aligning with the fashionable interior of the building.

Approach

Each adjacent area needed a unique design creating a natural flow through the building. As the areas are subject to high footfall from visiting customers and staff, the floor also needed to be durable, easy to clean and provide comfort underfoot with noise reduction.

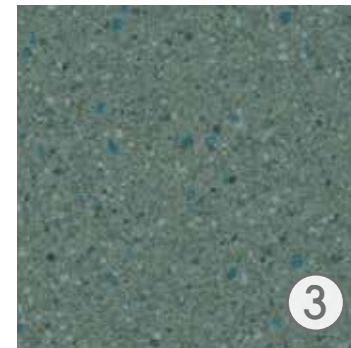

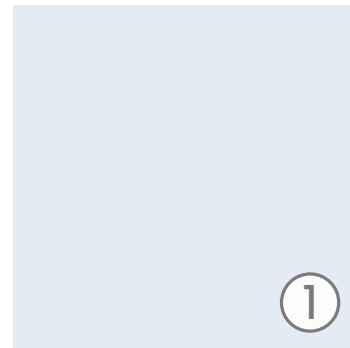

Solution

Altro Ensemble, an award-winning luxury vinyl tile, modular flooring system, was specified for each of the public-facing areas. With the ability to create unique designs, Altro Ensemble planks in colours Greige Rustic Oak and Anthracite Limed Harmonious Oak were laid in a herringbone pattern in the corridor, and tiles in colours Anthracite Concrete and Fossil Stone throughout the showroom, boardroom and breakout area.

"The areas are used for different purposes – meetings, team gatherings, and customer presentations - Altro Ensemble fits the bill perfectly."

Award-winning luxury vinyl tiles, a modular flooring system, in six sizes that can be flexibly mixed and matched to create unique designs from herringbone to geometric patterns. Impact sound insulation to 15dB and comfort underfoot. Great in public-facing areas where first impressions count.
